Achievements

Hanyang University has officially received IEQAS(International Education Quality Assurance System) certification from the Ministry of Education for 13 consecutive years since 2012.

Over 3,000 degree-seeking international students are studying at Hanyang University ERICA.(as of 2024)

Support Programs for International Students

Counseling Service for International Students

Hanyang is the first university in Korea to launch a Counseling Psychology Program; in which two dedicated counselors are available to assist international students and offer counseling services in 3 languages: Korean, English, and Chinese

Buddy & Tutoring Programs

• Buddy Program

In this program, each international student is paired with one Hanyang student who provides assistance with adjusting to the new environment. Moreover, international students can participate in various campus events and activities to become more acclimated to life in Korea.

• Tutoring Program

International degree students who might experience difficulties with courses in their major can request assistance from the Office of International Affairs(OIA) or their department office. A Hanyang student will be assigned to meet one-to-one with the international student or in a group setting.

On Campus Health Care Center

Students can always visit the Hanyang Health Care Center located on campus for basic medication, trauma treatment, or first aid in case of an emergency. The center is in charge of promoting student health. In addition to providing free basic treatment and medication, health-related programs are offered such as health counseling, stop-smoking clinics, and body composition tests.

Facilities for Muslim Students

Hanyang University ERICA Campus is committed to supporting its growing Muslim student population by providing a range of resources and facilities. These include dedicated prayer rooms, a separate kitchen, and additional support services.

Center for University-Industry Cooperation

- National & private research centers are located at ERICA
- 2,000 researchers from 200 venture companies are on campus
- 1,500 ERICA affiliated nearby companies are off campus
- ERICA is the nation's first university to launch the 4+1 Internship Program: Optional 1-2 semester internship offered at ERICA with affiliated companies. More than 1,000 students participate every year.

Submission of Online Application

※ Admission applications are ONLY accepted online.

1. Click on the application website link on the ERICA international students admission homepage (studyERICA.hanyang.ac.kr).
2. Register and log in on the application website.
3. Read the important notes and guidelines carefully.
4. Fill-out the application form.
5. Review your application thoroughly and pay the application fees.
6. Print-out the Application Form, Official Authorization for Inquiry into Enrollment and Academic Credit, and Application Verification after payment. (Please save your ID, password and application number for later reference.)
7. Submit all of the printed application materials in the appropriate order within the designated period to the Office of International Affairs ERICA (see pages 10-13).

*This procedure is for applying to one major (No. 1 to 7). For multiple applications, after the first application, applicants must fill out the application and pay the application fee one more time. You can print out the documents of the 1st and 2nd choice major and submit them together. (See page 6)

*The online application deadline is 5:00 PM (UTC+9:00, Seoul Standard Time). Applicants must complete all application procedures, including payment of the application fee, before the deadline.

*The application fee must be paid for the online application to be printed. After the payment is made, an application number will be assigned, indicating that the application has been completed. Once the application fee has been paid, a completed application cannot be canceled for any reason, nor can the selected major be changed.

*Please input your data (must match information on applicant's passport) as accurately as possible for the online application.

*In the case of any omissions on the admission application, input error, change of contact information, and/or lost contact with the applicant, the application may be rejected. The applicant is solely responsible for disqualification caused by any of the aforementioned. Applicants must use gmail, hotmail, or a Korean email account (Chinese email accounts may not be able to receive announcement emails. And the responsibility for any disqualification due to not receiving the email lies with the student.)

*If the uploaded picture is not the applicant's own or does not meet the required standards, the application will be rejected.

*The application fee (including the application site fee) is as follows:

- KRW 139,500 for Engineering Sciences, Computing, Advanced Technology and Convergence, Global Culture and Commerce, Communication and Culture, Business and Economics.
- KRW 209,500 for Design, Sports and Arts.

*If payment is made through PayPal, UnionPay, or Alipay, additional transaction fees may be charged.

Dual Application for Students Applying for an Undergraduate Program

Students who are applying to an undergraduate program can apply to two majors at the ERICA Campus.

• Criteria

- Students can apply for two majors at the ERICA Campus.
- Department of Advertising and Public Relations, Media studies, Culture Contents, and Business Administration are not available as 2nd choice majors.
- Multiple applications for 2 majors within the Dance and Performing Arts or Contemporary Music Divisions are not permitted.
- The ERICA Campus and Seoul Campus recruit undergraduate students separately. In the case of applying to both the Seoul and ERICA Campuses, the required documents should be submitted separately to each respective campus.
- If an applicant for the ERICA campus submits a document or artwork to the Seoul campus, it will be considered as non-submitted.

• How to “dual-apply”

Fill out online application for the 1st choice major → Pay the application fee (including any additional fees) → Fill out online application for the 2nd choice major → Pay the additional fee (If there is a difference between the application fees for the 1st and 2nd choice majors, the difference and any additional fees for the 2nd major must be paid together.)

*The application fee is the same regardless of whether you apply to one or two departments. However, the application site fee must be paid twice. If one of the selected departments is in the College of Design or the College of Sports and Arts, the application fee for those departments will apply.

*The application fee (extra fees will be incurred for applying to the 2nd major) is as follows:

- KRW 139,500 for Engineering Sciences, Computing, Advanced Technology and Convergence, Global Culture and Commerce, Communication and Culture, Business and Economics.
- KRW 209,500 for Design, Sports and Arts.

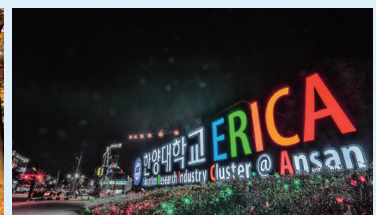

*Applicants cannot change their 1st and the 2nd major choices after the application fee has been paid.

• Process of selection

Applicants applying to multiple programs will have their eligibility for their 1st choice major determined based on the evaluation of their documents and artwork submitted. Only those who are not admitted to their 1st choice major will have their eligibility for the 2nd choice major assessed.

• Results

Application results can be checked on the ERICA International Admissions website by entering the applicant's birth date and application number. Applicants who have applied to multiple majors must enter both application numbers to check their results.

Notice related to Registration

Notice related to Registration

- Registration will be completed only if both the tuition fee and insurance fee (KRW 25,000) are paid.
- In the case of wire transfers (T/T) from overseas, the payment amount should include all international transaction fees. When funds are transferred overseas, the bank will charge their own overseas transfer fee. This amount is in addition to the school registration fee. Therefore, please note that there may be additional transaction fees of KRW50,000 when transferring funds. However, students will be reimbursed these extra fees by Hanyang ERICA. Please note that if the T/T amount is insufficient, the transfer will be rejected or other errors may occur.
- Admission may be canceled if the submitted documents, including the language proficiency certificates submitted before or after admission, are missing key information or if any information is found to be false or fraudulent.
- Applicants whose admission has been canceled due to the above reasons at Hanyang or other universities will not be allowed to reenter for a specific period of time.
- Those who gain admission to more than two universities must enroll in only one university. If an applicant infringes upon this rule, all acceptances and/or admissions from the universities may be cancelled. (Hanyang University Seoul Campus and Hanyang University ERICA Campus are considered separate universities.)
- Applicants who gain admission to Hanyang must pay the tuition fee during the registration period. Failure to do so will be interpreted as the student's intention to forgo the admission.
- If the application procedure is not adhered to or if any required documents are missing, admission may be canceled after enrollment.

Notice related to Registration

Forgoing Admission after Registration

- For those who wish to forgo admissions after tuition fee payment has been made, a Waiver of Admission (Hanyang University Form) must be submitted to the OIA within the designated period. In case admission is forgone after the semester begins, the tuition fee will be re-funded according to the terms and conditions related to the tuition fee of enrolled students.

Insurance

- All new students must apply for the National Health Insurance Service of Korea in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Korea. (National Health Insurance Act: Foreigners who stay inside of Korea for more than 6 months must apply for the National Health Insurance Service as a Locally Insured Person, and those who are in default on the National Health Insurance fee are restricted from getting a residential permit such as visa extension)
- In order to protect all students' other insurance coverage that is not covered by the National Health Insurance Service of Korea, it is necessary to enroll in International Student Injury Insurance. The insurance fee needs to be paid together with the tuition fee. (Insurance will be included in the tuition bill. Students cannot enroll without paying the insurance)
- Detailed information related to insurance subscription will be provided after admission acceptance.

Information about the Department of Global Culture and Commerce

Introducing the Department of Global Culture and Commerce

The Department of Global Culture and Commerce was established with the goal of fostering global culture and trade experts. This department, where globalization, culture, and commerce come together to envision new innovations, operates its entire curriculum under a "modular system." Through six unique and competitive modules, students have the freedom to design their career paths, integrating theory and practice as well as academia and the field. This practical curriculum provides an educational environment where students can fully develop their potential and creativity.

- * Students can choose and take courses from various modules simultaneously.
- * Modules can be freely selected, and the completion requirements for each module will be announced later.
- * Upon graduation, the degree certificate will state "Bachelor of Arts (Department of Global Culture and Commerce)." Details regarding module completion certificates will be announced later.

Hanyang University ERICA English Track Programs

English track programs have been established in the Department of Economics and Department of Business Administration at the ERICA Campus. In the English tracks, all courses are taught in English, and English language proficiency is required for applicants (not Korean language proficiency).

Advantages of the ERICA English Track Programs

Extensively implemented and chosen IC-PBL (industry-coupled problem-based learning) as learning method. This teaching practice has been getting attention from many universities in the country as the methodology is strongly welcomed by industries.

The Division of Business Administration obtained AACSB accreditation in 2018. AACSB recognized Hanyang ERICA's excellent education and research performance as less than five percent of total business schools in the world have received the AACSB accreditation.

Mentoring

ERICA offers special mentoring programs aimed at providing students with necessary assistance for both their academic studies and Korean language studies. There are also, cultural activities to help students better understand Korean culture.

Career Development

ERICA boasts a high job placement record in terms of both quality and quantity. Our graduates are able to gain employment at top ranked organizations including government agencies, public/private companies, financial institutions, academia, research institutes, start-ups, and so on.

Information about the Department of Design

Introducing the College of Design

The College of Design consists of the Integrate Design, Interactive Media Design, and Jewelry • Fashion Design majors. After building a strong foundation through the shared first-year curriculum, students enhance their expertise from the second year onward through a specialized major module system within their respective departments. This competency-based design module and micro-major system cultivates professionals with specialized expertise and fosters interdisciplinary talent through the integration of various academic fields.

* There are no restrictions on choosing a department or major when advancing to the second year.

* Upon graduation, the degree certificate will indicate the major chosen in the second year. Details regarding module notation and completion certification will be announced later.

Hanyang University ERICA English Track Programs

English track programs have been created in the School of Business Administration and School of Economics at the ERICA Campus. In these tracks, all courses are conducted in English.

Advantages of the ERICA English Track Programs

IC-PBL: A learner-centered educational model

Students solve context-rich problems found in real-life, coupled with programs involving collaboration with specific industries, society, and the university.

AACSB accreditation

Less than 5% of all business schools in the world have gained the coveted AACSB accreditation.

Mentoring

Special mentoring programs and cultural activities are available specifically for international students.

Career Development

Potential employment is available at various agencies, public/private companies, financial institutions, in academia, research institutes, start-ups, etc.

See page 22 to know more about the ERICA English Tracks!
