Student support programs

We help language trainees adapt to school life and Korean culture through language and cultural exchanges with Korean students at Dongguk University.

To help language trainees adapt to school life and manage stress, professional psychological counselors are invited to run a psychological counseling program dedicated to foreign language trainees. (available in Korean, English, Chinese, etc.)

We provide counseling services to language trainees who wish to enter Dongguk University's undergraduate (graduate) school, and have a scholarship exclusive to students from the Korean Language Center.

It is an intensive exam preparation for the TOPIK exam. Any regular course student can take the class for free.

Sort	Scholarship amount	Eligible students
Best academic performance scholarship	30% tuition reduction	Best academic performance scholarship by grade in previous semester
Good academic performance scholarship	10% tuition reduction	Best academic performance scholarship by grade in previous semester

For the convenience of language trainees, we run an immigration agency service to handle matters related to immigration, such as alien registration and extension of stay.

It is a TOPIK test center designated by the National Institute for International Education where more than 3,000 foreigners a year take a TOPIK test at Dongguk University.

You have free access to Dongguk University Central Library, which holds over 1.6 million books.
